BRECKENRIDGE EXCEEDS QUOTA

In the Third Liberty Loan Drive. 1081 Subscribers. and a Grand Total of $235,900 Subscribed. Women Workers Deserve Commendation.

Breckinridge county so far exceeded its quota in subscriptions for the Third Liberty Loan Drive, that the county's chairman, Mr. W. J. Piggott, of Irvington, thinks perhaps the county will get the desired Honor flag even tho the required per centage of subscribers was not reached. At any rate, Mr. Piggott has put in a claim at the St. Louis headquarters on the plea that while the county did not get the necessary number of subscribers, it did go over 10 per cent in subscriptions; and should this claim be granted, Breckinridge and each town, which has attained its exact quota of subscriptions and subscribers, will in turn get an Honor flag.

Last week there was some doubt as to whether the towns where there are railroad employees, would get credit for the bonds which were subscribed through the railroad committee, but it is known definitely now that the towns will receive credit according to information from the county chairman.

Result of The Drive.

The final report of the Third Liberty Loan Drive is as follows: Bank of Hardinsburg & Trust Co.—$80,000 with 355 subscribers. Farmers Bank, Hardinsburg, —$33,200, with 90 subscribers. First State Bank, Irvington, $40,200 with 188 subscribers. E. H. Shellman & Co., —Irvington, $21,400, with 71 subscribers. Breckinridge-Bank of Cloverport, $40,750, with 114 subscribers. Railroad Employees of the county, $20,350, with 263 subscribers. Grand Total $235,900, with 1081 subscribers.

The county's quota was $107,750, for 1,575 subscribers.

Women Workers.

The organized workers of the woman's Division of the Third Liberty Loan Drive proved most efficient in their different branches of service. Mrs. R. B. McGlothlin, of Irvington, who was the county chairman of this division, with her assistants, Mrs. Marvin Beard, of Hardinsburg, chairman of the sales department; Mrs. M. B. Kincheloe of Hardinsburg, chairman of speakers; Miss Margaret Coniff, of Irving, chairman of publicity; and Mrs. Frank Ferry, of Cloverport, city chairman of sales, deserve special commendation for their splendid work.

The total amount subscribed through the Woman's Division was $52,700 by 250 subscribers.

Of the $52,700, which was secured by the women alone, $20,000 of this amount was subscribed through Mrs. Ferry's committee in Cloverport. Mrs. Ferry desires to thank her committee for their excellent assistance.

MOTHER'S DAY.

Sunday, May 12 has been designated as Mother's Day in America. The day is universally and significantly observed by individuals wearing a colored flower for the living mother or sending her some token of love, and a white flower is worn for the heavenly mothers.

The American soldiers in France will distinguish the day by each soldier writing a letter home to mother.

A service especially for mothers will be held at the eleven o'clock hour Sunday morning at the Methodist church in this city.

GOOD WOMAN PASSED BEYOND

Wife of J. M. Craig and Sister of Lud Moorman, of Mattingly. Faithful and Devoted Worker of the Black Lick Baptist Church.

Glen Dean, Ky., May 7, (Special)—Mrs. Jennie Moorman Craig, wife of J. M. Craig of near Vanzant, Ky. departed this life May 4, 1918, was laid to rest in the family burying ground on Sunday. The funeral services were held from the Black Lick church conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Meng.

Mrs. Craig was 72 years old and the daughter of Dr. T. O. Moorman and Mrs. Moorman, of Glen Dean. Twenty-six years ago she was married to Mr. J. Milton Craig, who survives her with an adopted daughter, one sister, Mrs. R. S. Weller, of Vanzant, and one brother, Lud Moorman, of Mattingly.

Mrs. Craig was a most active church worker in all departments of the church including the Sunday-School and Woman's Missionary Society. She was a member of the Black Lick church and her whole life had been given to doing charitable work. She was a well read woman on all phases of Christian work, one to whom everybody went for advice and she never failed to impart her knowledge to those who asked it of her but she never would speak publicly. Mrs. Craig was well posted on the by-laws and parliamentary rules which was often helpful in the county association meetings. She had planned for the coming annual meeting which convenes at the Black Lick church in August.

The home of Mrs. Craig was always open to her friends and she greeted them with a hearty welcome.

May the Lord be with her husband and the little girl whom she was rearing and who was so very devoted to her, is the sincerest wish of one who knew her.

FLAG SERVICE AT SAND KNOB

Sunday Afternoon to Honor the Boys of Sixth Magisterial District. Service Flag of 37 Stars. Hon. Clemens Chief Spokesman.

Axtel, Ky. May 6 (Special)—The sixth magisterial district of Breckinridge county showed its patriotism and remembrance for the boys at the front last Sunday afternoon, May 5, when Old Glory and a service flag with 37 stars were unfurled to the breeze on the summit of historic Sand Knob, saluted by an enormous crowd of people, who were given the rare treat splendid addresses by Hon. Lavega Clemens of Owensboro, Ky., and Rev. Brother Meng.

Music, furnished by a string band and patriotic songs greatly added to the success of the occasion. Misses Ruth Eskridge and Louise Berry were the ladies of honor at the unfurling of the flag.

A neat sum of money was realized, which will be handed over in equal parts to the Glen Dean and McDaniels chapters of the Red Cross, showing thereby that we remember our soldier boys in a sympathetic as well as in a substantial manner.

We are wondering whether the other districts in our county will go and do likewise.

Following is a list of our boys: Volunteers Charles Jolly, Ira Stone, Henry DeHaven Moorman, Jim Matthews, D. C. Moorman, Homer Powell, Charles Glasscock, Vernon Matthews, Lee Wall, Willis Glasscock, Elliot Moorman, Owen Hicks, Poley Simmons, Charles Askins, Roy Moorman, Paton Askins, Vic Galloway.

Drafted Gilbert Glasscock, Henry Burnett, Robert Tenant Osborn, Samuel Sneed Noblett, Archie Glasscock, Walter Meador, Aden Fentress, James S. Noblett, Bennie Davidson, Willard Pryor, John Storms, Elzer Mattingly, Thomas Edward Bowlds, Neel Moore, Matt Carwile, Gilbert F. Galloway, Walter W. Stone, Mora Brown, Walter Storms, Robert Bruce Pullen.
